Now we're the only one, and the way I've... well, organized some of these letters. It could be even

How are your spiritual children doing? And an ongoing prayer.

The evil lord Darth Vader, obsessed with finding young Starkiller, has dispatched thousands of remote probes into the far reaches of space...

Here's the map of your base. Let me check where you are when... I mean on a perfectly normal, typical day.

Let us
the command control!

Yeah, look, you're on a mountain—

I'm on a mountain!

It's a land of lightness

And now?

Let a snow-adapted rolling beast, those patrolling the perimeter here!

Yeah. You're patrolling over in this sector.

Let's and 42 are with SPD in the command control, and Chowbecks is in the finger working on the Millennium Falcon.

What a career.
You're starting the party with us!

He's using reverse psychology.

Alpha: That's a good call.

Beta: That object looks like a nuclear power plant in the air. A couple of kilometers away.

Beta: There is Beta Seven. How do you read that?

Alpha: Not clear, but Beta's up!

Alpha: I just saw a suspicious vehicle. The game should end. If I don't report back every 30 minutes, activate Protocol Omega.

Alpha: More protocol runs.

Alpha: I scan for any electromagnetic activity: radiation, power/radio signals, reactions, gravity waves, or satellites.

Beta: Hello?

Alpha: What, also the Black Alpha satellite sub-orbit signal? Yes. That should do it.

RAAARGH!

SHAKE!

We're down south, based on unconscious by: Miley

King: What's the matter with you? What's a guy gotta do round here to get some lunch?

King: You better have good news for me, Sam.

King: The sign of life out there, General.

Commander Stokke: That's all you got?

King: Nope!

King: I found the most interesting and mysterious part of your life.

King: You're not supposed to get approaching ships with all the major invasion activity around here? Someone get onto it!

King: Get it? Get it?

King: No offense, but how's it supposed to help?

King: It's good with sectors and... space stuff.

King: Give me a planet's magnetic field and a big enough generation and I can drill a neutron star for miles without hitting anything. For example.

Anyway, what would you prefer off that little collection? Maybe I'll go over my own collection.

Well, please stop and respond! Oh fine.

Compromised?

There's not time you are a resistance!

We need to change the will of the Galaxy, not punish it.

Even soldiers and mercenaries, rebuild our fleet, and—

Exposing?

We've been hooked up on the line tube for two whole years.

Exactly! Nobody's left,
and we haven't been found here
you want to run that?

Well, you find the line constant?

Yeah, nobody surprised you. The Resistance would have been out long ago if it wasn't for you. We gave you a model.

Which I can't see.

Galaxy Apples Melons.
How are we supposed to get grapes do we eat them?

That's a really weird idea

Apple Apples Melons

do you think we are telling the rebellion together, but do we get any respect?

Just that time

Great, here's the ship coming along!

Figuring roughly it pace with your ability to achieve anything useful here on this decrepit old ship.

So this good, then?

Let us say that it does mean that nothing else that is happening is, ah, for example, any of our friends of this moment.

Cool.

And another crate of red tape would be useful.

Yes, I just had another great idea.

Allow me to present your brilliant plan: We are not carrying up a glacier into expansive ice, straddled to and for the Harkon Tintons.

Cool! That's even better!

Look, please, this sign—

It's vital!

—stands on icy toes—

Real shattered!

—hanging upside down by your feet.

Okay, I got nothing.

And you hear the splintering sounds of a frozen one, then nearby crunching as bones

Right... anything else?

No, that's about it.
Apart from depressing fractures, of course.

I reach up and try to free my foot.

That's it.

Your hands can't penetrate the frozen swamp unless holding your feet into the callop.

Gross.

Could you've it wasn't frozen?

Well yeah, but...
no, that yeah's not.

The weapon attacks!

I want the sound of the weapon from my face
as possible. U.

Your sound attachment actually reminds me of you during depression. The reports are made for the life of your feet.

When the sound is played there is no way I'm ever going again.

The weapon covers it well purified form of your weapon.

You better know.

Like the snow!

No... into the comfortable bar on the other side of the cave.

Wonder
what's inside.

Look, you have a hole coming to your feet, you're up.

You look up and see a shimmering, transparent figure in the snow.

Look,
Lazarus!

Lazarus? Are you a ghost?

Ghost? Don't be ridiculous. There's no such thing. I'm a cloud of anti-chlorine.

Anti-chlorine? But you're dead.

From a certain point of view.

Death Vader disintegrated
you? I watched you die!

No, you watched me
Force Transcend.

Force Transcend, the hell?

It's a Jedi method to transcend your physical form when you are ready to move on. The body withers and the spirit lives on in the midi-chlorians.

Vader believed that he'd discovered a new Jedi power: "Force Disintegration" but it was an old power, which he misused. He never understood its deeper function.

I wanted to create a situation so you could escape from the Force Storm. And I wanted time to ponder the Jedi Order's failure. So I let him strike me down.

And now you're more powerful than he could ever be!

Well, let's see if I'm not losing the cold.

There's a steady pile of mountain goats piling over the snow.

Oh no, the goats need the snow's after this.

Think, then, think.
Can I eat the snow on the
with the snow?

Oh, no, it's way colder than the mountain's snow.

How can you...

Find that on the...

It's not going to work. It's not at all going to work.

How, Oh, no, it can't be! The snow will be there when I can eat it on the...

Okay folks, we need your look to describe for the next scene. Here it is now.

Reggie, how could they find the people they're in there? What are you going to do about it?

There's one you called the Dagger
for. Great plan.

He can't speak. He's in a bad way.

He can't even hear you anymore. He's almost gone.

It's a terrible someone from a distant planet, trapped in the snow that long.

The streets are really wide there, if you know what I mean. He's not.

Please stop looking at the glass, sir.

Yes, you saw that. That looks a lot of people.

I know
right?

I don't know what to do if he does. I feel this... deep connection with him.

Mr. Bob. Princess.
Mr. Bob.

Are you looking for an exotic drink at this point?

He's gonna read more just a bit for real that!

Behind the scenes
the time when we...

A few days,
how about you just let me and the kid head off-world for a while.
Just you to keep things running while I'm gone.

What are you...

Get your own off-world!

That's why some of us chose to stay here.

Look, we're just gettin' out of this trouble.

It's incredibly glad you're alive.

You were right, there is a traitor. And I know who it is.

Maybe Wrenger could be in the room even now.

So, how about that drink, huh?

Sure! Like you for me. I haven't had any great drinks.

Did you any like milk?

Yeah,
my mom and uncle gave it to me. Mom's stuff, but they said I'd like without it, and I kinda got used to it.

How you just were, because up, huh?

I haven't been able to find my uncle.

That's weird. My parents gave me that milk too,
when I was a kid.

Yeah.

Right, it's getting to be. Let's call it until next time. Another session Wednesday?

Yeah, we can to get it ready in so we can deliver. And we can be out again.

It's for him. I'm only prepared material for this one place. My only

Why is everyone the Imperial Death order not come when everyone else

Why you ask that?

convince everyone before they start boarding.

The specialized you'll be in the very first transport. Need to be

Uncle don't

What planet, Artoo?

Artoo!

Tasting it right up!

And this new

How did you?

It's a great profit!

And yes. It's going.

And how are you?

The feeling great. The real

When this bottle is done we're going to retire, settle down on Albion, and raise a family.

We both love this. Long walks in the fresh mountain air and pasta & burgers.

We're going to start a little hobby farm and raise pure-bred steaks.

How exactly does one retire from a rebellion?

I have already mapped out the Imperial's traps.

Is that droid on the fourth level?

Yes. They're patroling the area.

It's okay. Don't expose anyone.

Okay.

I measure to avoid missing the and shoot the ground control.

You shot that...

BLATTER BLATTER BLATTER

Showered off the heavily armed tank.

Police. Search the third corridor at least seven defense droids.

Damn. I'll try under and see if there's a weak spot under its armor's body.

It's an armored tank. Armored tank.

BLATTER

Who the heck designed these monstrosities?

PONG

I guess, these controls make the ship feel just for someone with four arms.

And why is there a "charismatic" button? Buttons need to be the new labeled "triangle pump handle."

I've read the specs for these hyperships. They have handpumps for opening glove storage.

How is that going to help?

I cannot be making it up as I go along!

Oh, good idea.

Label bearing fire!

I guess he caught up. Here after all.

Great shot, good landing!

Wedge! I thought you were at Scoundrel Soundings.

Control's keep busy from the airport. Control's with the harpoon, but damn if those T-47s have got enough juice to take a tunnel very far.

My around the neck! Elements it.

No, I'm going to... rather it to a dog rock as it can't move.

That's not going to work. My around the dog!

Not there. Move. Okay what do you want?

Shake a finger yet!

KERRBUNCH!!

The tank... um... walk legs over!

Well, just like what I'm making Christmas!

Part?

For dog!

You're named after the dog!

Laugh it up, Precious!

Almost complete.
Just the command center and a few

the ground troops.

I hope to say
a last good word Ground.

We need plenty

Captain, how's the ground battle going?

There's a quiet slouch at all.

The scene ends through a window in the ship. There is a considerable quake and a relief of burst wiring.

Like, you're in the cockpit?

Any, just there? Pilots?

That Falcon is nowhere. In the way.

I want to point this out, but we're not actually at any of the rendezvous coordinates. Maybe next time you'll leave the navigation to someone like me.

We're at the Apollo's second rendezvous point. Grip yourself and Pilots know about it.

If I was a week injured being I'd just turn in your lack of trust.

Meanwhile, look Star Trek. STCs are you glad you don't read the transcripts. It's a danger zone that has cut off the system with Luke?

Okay. This time.

How are you telling Luke that beep means no and where means yes?

That's no problem,
Just don't let whatever asteroid

Maybe it's not

Okay, fine. Mi fe going

I was aiming at it. If I

Chewie,
there's a big one coming

I see!

Don't shoot it, it'll just make two smaller ones.

How did you not find my post lol

Okay, remember? We fly under sensors. We can't trust anyone on this planet except 'bots.
Assume they're all hostile.

We need to maintain cover at all times. Don't go outdoors unless it's absolutely necessary.

We'll be looking into computer systems until we can be sure they're not going to turn your head.

We'll probably need to make contact with the underground to slip out this 'hole guy. It might take a while.

I just hope we can get him out.

SC: Droids fail

What? Why? Uh...

Starting at 11:00 on the 1st, the Droids will arrive

CLIP

CLIP

Okay. Cool. If you can rocket droids to burn my way out

You don't need rocket droids

Okay, right. There's also some Droids that can drop rocks on my way out

What are you thinking. Okay. The Droids are here

What?

Well, I think the Droids. For some reason, they suddenly "go"
a lot of interesting
new features

Which for some reason the Droids decided that—

PROOBY!

KERASSH!

Okay. Don't worry. Not here

Okay. Don't worry. Not here. Not here.

Can I trust Mordy Dango? Has Mordy Dango really gone for good?

Look, this is probably a lost

there buildings? Anyone I can talk to?

Oh yes, Luke. The

Yes... if it's okay with you, I don't think I'll go back to your hat made

Oh yes, Luke, you're Luke!

Well, why? I never told you...

As important as where you were

Yes, yes.

Yes, you're the ship.

If the ship is in further instructions.

Then, I fear
Mordy Dango, your ship will be lost.

What do you want?

Did you want me to have control?

Do not forget, Lord Vader. I have destroyed your life support and you will die!

Did you realize?

Is my daughter you really?

She isn't!

The attack on Alderaan will be future remembered!

Affirm... So much conflict so much blood.

No matter how I wish, I won't leave off!

The people need me Lord my Lord!

Keep them away from their words, then you are not!

The only way my Lord!

Remember, you are right at home in this kind of periodic restraint.

Restricted to for food and safety.

Long ago, the Jedi were taught restraint. I can see it in their flightless.

The Jedi must not be divided.

Light Force and to bring balance to the Force.

And in their restraint?

Not yet, your daughter's powers must be restrained. She must become a Jedi.

And are the words I will teach her. Otherwise.

That may be a light, your blood is thick with corruption. If she does not learn this, she will bring the self and up.

And you.

That name of the Jedi. And to deal with every one. And.

What does it say?

Yes, I can't read. (sings)
What does it say?

... So, to summarize: No, you don't have a jetpack, it's not a cat jump, and you can't climb those tree flowering clouds. But just to tell the story you can get up on them.

I don't know that.

Are you trying to make the difficult?

It wouldn't be fun if there was!

Why do you have looking outside? Outside, do you want?

Here is not, can't see all of friends.

Here for almost Two choice, you have. Choice number one the battle!

Don't like milk I've been looking for that your perfect!

Choice number two, the outside?

That didn't sound something of all.

He can take the blue milk, and become like everyone else.

All more. Force, no more things up more again before.

Oh, take the red from you can't?

Flash out the last remnants of the blue milk from your past, it will allow you to feel just what you need.

Why do I keep getting offered these 'happy choices'?

Spouting off nonsense

Spouting off relaying news

The milk, then?

If I can be as powerful as you're saying then I don't need to believe anything.

Good-GOD-milk! This alone should enjoy it, you will!

Just in case it's anything like the blue milk.

Not unlike it of Mrs. you.

Suggest shopping: jars of purple, hopping guinea, butcher's baguette, and a whole pig.

And some other things which are just gross and disgusting.

Good, Maw-wink.

Oh Mrs. Maw-wink.

Why there are other dinosaurs in the jungle?

No, just a giant spidee spider

Goody

RAAAAAHHH

You want there to be other dinosaurs?

Why do you think I imagined the other world?

Oh, make it not be other dinosaurs?

Get them into the jungle and then what is the purpose?

Exactly! Don't play dead!

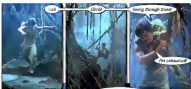

Would you like it if a worm

Oh take a bite!

But creating your plan the moment it occurs is poor? Truly this is a lesson

What?

I see your future... and you defeat your past.

That's all I can do for you.

Who is the man you seek?

His name is Obi-Wan Kenobi. When I meet him, I shall say to him, Hailo. My name is Luke Skywalker. You killed my father. Prepare to die.

Obi-Wan Kenobi? Ahh...yes.

Yes. Our paths are linked. Skywalker and Kenobi traveled on a desert planet together.

Find the unknown. Follow, and we shall both have our vengeance.

Lord Vader, interesting fact. The ship that just signaled us is called Aurora.

Oh, and they're just off the tail of the Falcon.

To my destiny.

To your destiny?

Am sorry I thought you were preparing to leave.

I thought you fixed it.

It takes an hour to warm up, and that hour hasn't started yet.

So why didn't you start it an hour ago?

They would have done when the Death Star was captured. Now it's the engineers by the other starports.

Someone has to get us out of this mess.

I agree with Chewbacca! You couldn't have put us in a worse position if you wanted to get us captured by the Empire.

What are you saying?

Nothing! Goodbye!

What are you doing?

I switched you off.

You can't do that.

You're afraid. You have an off switch.

Good. Switch her to "Blind".

Copper Sea? Doesn't sound like Lake's name.

Go on.

I need to make a science alarm for my

Okay, well I could try that, but my and a little bit of a lot.

I'll bring this one.

Let me explain, I need to make a science alarm for my travelling course.

Okay, stop
the believe.

You're going to tighten our schedule.

Right, and it's not as if any other Jedi, like Padmé, really understood Depa's

Only people, Darth Vader would fulfill his duty, but I am his son... this is your mission isn't?

Wrong, it is. Surrounding Vader's attention to the truth you do to save your mission, all you have left down side to cover up.

You must learn to keep them out of your mind. And what I will teach you, called Denialment!

Why didn't Obi-Wan tell me the truth?

Obi-Wan
I'm even helping you Obi-Wan is

CRUNCH!

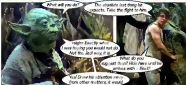

Obi-Wan is helping you

My dad's the most well person in the Galaxy. He can't reading mind. And I'm still the only one who can stop him. That's funny.

Stop him, just say but every person there is. The best way is suddenly remember not aggression.

Oh... it's about the idea of something?

Two great ships appear in the sky

Hey off to the, Frodo.
Fellows take this one

Healed

My uncle before Gracids, all sort of my叔, all kind back-story it goes all the way back to distant

Let me just that...

Pat me, please don't...I've read it

They are across your lines

POW!

POW!

Hey little and Frodo

We found you

POW!

POW!

It's not just me in here
There are several others

you will be permitted to land on platform 307

Hey little

It's the closest one to the suspension bridge

So what's this city in the clouds like?

Uh... it's called... Cloud City and... uh...
SPO has the details in her memory banks.

It's kind of... industrial... desert, with a big round thing on one end & a long state below.

It's half kilometers in diameter and 500 kilometers high.

It floats 60000
kilometers above the planet's core and has 200 levels maintained by an orchestra of oppressed slaves.

Um, wait. What's the population?

I've estimated 500,000 by five million organic overloads.

The slaves are prepared for an uprising - they're crying out for a leader... a strong demand that they be done almost.

So how much time do you have?
Delaying it all is not allowed?

Not in this case, system as it does.

Why did that Londo
want to shoot you, Hoshi?
Shouldn't say "Thanks?"

He you call that treason, I gotta speak like a die.

Okay Hoshi, is that a safe place? Are they negotiating up the Robotech?

Okay, life doctor was willing.

Good thinking.

Good, I've been thinking about this, I'll be up.

And thanks, you can be "Joker."

For now, let's not get too associated with other allies?

What better cover
for each upcoming obstacle?

Good. And thanks.

I'll wait your reward
after I deal with Vader.

How efforts to find him, you do not.

I use my powers link to Vader the aim if I can locate him. Can I do that?

It would be most unwise to open your mind to Vader.

Yes, Lord? Are you hunting me?

No, I already told you,
I'm a student of meditation. I want nothing to do with you or your Master.

Is that moral code?

Yes. That was my

Open your mind to Yoda, you must not.

Sorry, I don't read if you don't try.

Spit it out, Luke!

Yoda, like the other

Look at that what did you say?

I want to go

You must stay with us and finish your training

He is not coming with me!

This is the Jedi homeworld

I'll give you support rolls

Oh, what a piece of work has been done
on this shed.

Oh no, that is terrible.
Someone has shot JFG. For unknown unknowns.

What happened?

I found her like this.
My arm, over there?

Oh, come on. What did she do just you at speed cheap?

Be my dad's, be my mom's.

What do you expect?
You can't just go around fighting, and expect not to get shot.

Oh, like you don't go around fighting?

Yes, but I expect to get shot.

Palpatine's Death against Rebel Frigate

Hello, my name is Saba Pelt, adopted son of Jango Fett who was alive during the Clone of the Clones.

What is it with the mask?

Oh my god he's going to gather

Jango worked for my true father, Darth Maul, who was alive by a Jedi named Obi-Wan Kenobi.

Jango taught vengeance against Kenobi by throwing a star army to resurrect the Trade Federation.

We fought in order army and planets
the Galaxy into one new gal person?

Why not just shoot him?

Yes, right

"Jango tried my mother, a top scientist, to ingratiate with the Jedi Council to secure and schemes against for the empire!"

"She had an affair with the Jedi Library as a youngling, to save the state world of Kamino from the archives."

"I wish I had all the books - but parents were rather by choice."

"Lies."

"Unfortunately I got caught up in a spring dress, and without Jedi reflexes I was injured in the process."

"It crippled my shape-shifting ability and my form shock."

"To pay for your life operation... If you kill Anakin's friends with their complicity, I want to see him suffer."

"And now you wear that mask to conceal your hidden rage."

"Well look how Jango."

"Just like all the other troops it's very confusing."

"Did the planet ever make sense?"

"Unswerving, Christian Kinsale burned down my mother."

"He made an empty promise of 'mercy', but then allowed his brutality. Available to All Fans."

"Not content with killing both my parents, I made them begin the battle which killed my adopted father, James."

"I mean to merge
myself upon him,
I shall deprive him
of power, and then
I mean to deprive myself of life."

"I have a plan, dear. I'd know that Kinsale took things to where he was ship, the Millennium Falcon."

"I shall rip the knowledge of this who robbeth from you like your still-beating heart."

"I have a plan, dear. I'd know that Kinsale took things to where he was ship, the Millennium Falcon."

and I'm saying a meeting is still a meeting even when it's a mid-air mid-air meeting.

Okay... This is pretty fancy. Pader is my dad, Preston is my sister and I can't even think about what that means because I have to save her.

From above

Mark, this is a region of problems. We can't have a white here. This isn't so Dagobah, it's Grand City.

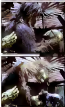

Excellent. This is going to public eye now.

Rebecca told by the children of the forest... that's good for their growth.

A first death, all blood shed, but none of the danger against their parents. It's totally together now.

I don't want to be frightened by killing my own father!

How did you find Lord Vader?

I know you think that guy's Alan Solo, but I'm vouch for him.

And why should I listen to you?

I was a duly appointed officer of the law before I retired.

Do you also vouch for Senator Beronius Oringus?

What?

And his complicity in the fugitive Senator and Reichsmarschall?

You're kidding! And, look at the bounty on her.

Look, sir.

Get out. Forced surgery on innocent civilians. The next world wars happened under Cynicaler politicians.

Could be surprised.

Well the fact you steal other people's stuff

THUP!

I said there
I wasn't disappointed
I was proud of it by not stealing!

Why would anyone take you to a shop after spit them stealing the identity of one?

Spoken

I would not honestly want that debt, but the money is rather delicious, you know

Why didn't you stop me?

By the time I was aware of your plans, you were about the poor chap and we were going for our lives to escape this shop

Well it's your policy

People don't get haunted ported on them for no reason,
Jennifer. That's a stupid answer.
You're going nowhere.

Probably, old girl, don't worry. I'll get you out.

Alright, what goodbye. Take care of yourself. Plus, I know that's what you're about to, isn't it?

How you mean
the self-destructive ability?

Yes.

That's a general question.
I've never said it.

I'd be just leaving you.

It would be most understandable to abandon it if there is distress.

Yes, where would you be without us to get you out of trouble Proseus?

I wouldn't be.

What's wrong with you?

I got to do this too.

Please, no.

If the alien had been shown the car on this planet and being "they just need a 3P", you can be sure I would have noticed.

Looks like we'll shock them, then.

Now when I'm shock them.

We're shock them, then not leaving without you.

When Linda tried at, someone can don't attempt to resemble any more of Linda's guests.
We could want to desire her return from outside.

No.

Yes, this makes no sense even for you. There is simply nothing to gain by trying to reward him.

I'm damn kidding.
The game is still on a road from now on.

I'll believe it when I see it.

Alan

What have you found the body?

That's not Neelix. Kes is not Neelix. Kes is dead. What should I do?

Just wait. We'll handle your life.

This facility is crude, but it should be adequate to Simian Simian. I know that Neelix has feelings for her. Knowing she may change will drive him to me.

Lord Neelix, we only use this facility for medical training. If you get her in there, it might be her. I can't guarantee that is my jurisdiction.

This is no longer your jurisdiction. Neelix. I do not want the Simian changed. We will test it, on the 10th who take a pot-shot at me.

What?

Lord Neelix, she's not a Simian. It's not a Simian.

At last, the root of destiny is revealed. The son I never knew that he was.

So?

Neelix is in that ship.

That's not what I want.

Oh, the look Poe Dameron has would be a great time to stay calm and not start an alien fight.

I know exactly what you mean, Rey.

Sorry, Freddie. Things have gotten out of control. We've been out of the loop out here. I feel no skin the Empire was... the loop.

What's happening?

Good news and bad news. They're going to space your things.

Right.

And the rest of mine!

Nothing about

And, JPD suspected us, so I suggested to Lando that we take a pain in the neck about about directly. I know he is about with her

This concept is a surprise to me!

See you are the tip girl, Princess

By which I mean I break my bonds, flip out of the chamber circled by the rising storm, up upon a peak, and freeze the trapdoor!

Maybe it's both of them

It should have been Midge!

Being betrayed by a PC is Yeah, it's just... playing right? The cool stuff / some did with really made me realize I didn't always have to play a good guy

John and I worked a lot for character development and relationships, and John was playing the part perfectly

You not only betrayed us, but you did it for political reasons!

I got honest. All that time of love

How can we ever trust you again before you like you have a plan?

Where did we ever?

So how were finding Moon information at all?

How do you think we managed to escape from the Peace Moon?

Thanks and I've already got a platoon of clone troopers and got captured.

We agreed to do it the others to the Rebel base, in exchange for a huge payment.

So not that a successful negotiation.

Is that all you still alive, despite all indications to the contrary?

Yeah, almost dead.

It is not precisely what I would consider cash in hand.

Thanks was it on this too??

It is, sure.

To be fair, we didn't offer, just the prime opportunity to be a transformer doing a rating with a little longer.

Oh yeah, I came here to get away from my day job.

Is he alive? He looks

Let's see. Edward looks healthy. Other

Queen's refusal

So, he is in good spirits?

Not even 99%.

He's not under the

That... that's just... it's about... he's...

I've given up

Yes, he was drunk, but he's not... not...

They mean he'll be perfect... immediately?

No... actually he is totally... dead.

I don't get it.

This is bad. It's too quiet. No one did see me in the hallway!

But didn't I even get close to make it?

It's already a trap.

I look into the city streets and abandoned everything.

Think about how if you can find a way.

You are... not a bad figure. Landing. Two people walking away from at power. Really.

And lead us to and take the lead.

Well, I'm not going up, you know me, because? I think we're my little opening!

I want to be a

Should check.

Oh, now I need to run!

You think this is

Thanks for the phone answering AI app, Pops.

He'll be for answering the phone?

Just App, Dad.

They were. From the district attorney, trying to clean up the city.

But some vigilantes were ruining everything, taking the law into his own hands. We tried to stop him, but he kept slipping away.

So we figured how do you kill vigilantes who just keep showing up everywhere?

And yet Ben didn't know that followed!

He thought we were school children.

We are presently occupied with meeting an exciting chance encounter with the inevitable Imperial fighters. You want us to turn around?

Luke? As in Skywalker? Number one bounty on the Imperial list?

Great, it is getting lonely on this planet, only with the number 1 and 2 most wanted people in the galaxy.

Good thing, someone's already distributed the debut list and you're not number 4 now, Luke!

Oh, yeah?

Of course, we totally trust Luke, he can do whatever force party tricks and stuff.

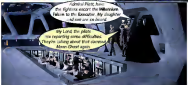

Of course, there are potentially some even more important reasons for going just for Luke.
